Pretension Takes the Handleap From Colonial Girl-H. P. Whitney Provides Two Winners in Battleaxe and Comet -Tanya's Sister, Tangle, Victorious.

Saratooa, Aug. 1.—Only two favorites were successful here to-day, and the bookmakers got the bulk of the money. R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Gamara lost a fortune for the amart players when he was defeated in the Mohawk Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds. at nine furlongs. Gamara was the overnight selection. He figured a sure thing with all the handlcappers, and when he opened at 7 to 5 the handleappers, and when he opened at 740 s the flood of gold was so great that he was soon pounded down to 7 to 10. Practically every plunger at the track played the Wilson colt as if it were all over but the cashing.
With only 96 pounds up and little McDaniel in the saddle Gamara looked to have the other starters at his mercy, so that there were liberal prices against E. R. Bradley's Paim Tree and Woodford Clay's Angler, the supposed contenders. Palm Tree opened at 5 to 2, but went up to 9 to 2, with 7 to 1 always on tap against Angler. Jennie McCabe, 12 to 1, Angler and Kehalian, 15 to 1, were the leaders at the three-quarter pole, Gamara and Palm Tree having left the post slowly. In the attech the pacemakers tired and Gamara looked the winner, but only for a moment, as he hung, in his stride, and also swerved at the last sixteenth pole, which enabled Willie Knapp to run over him with Palm Tree, who won cleverly by two lengths in 1:55. Gamara had four lengths over Jennie McCabe, with Angler eight lengths away.

Jack Bennett put over a real good thing Angler eight lengths away.

Jack Bennett put over a real good thing in Pretension, the winner of the handicap at a mile. Pretension opened at 5 to 1 and was pounded down to 13 to 5, closing favorite at this quotation. Colonial Girl, with top weight; meanwhile, carried a pile of smart money at threes, with W. H. Snyder's Tyron and August Belmont's Blandy also in some favor. But there was nothing to it but Pretension when the field was sent away, for Burns took him quickly to the front, where he made every furlong pole a winning one and passed the judge, an easy winner by two lengths in 141. Inferno was the runner-up for haif a mile, and then gave way to Colonial Girl, who proved to be much the best of the others and ran into the place with a safe margin over Tyron. The latter lost some ground at the start, but ran a good race and beat Blandy by half a length, there being no excuses for Mr. Belmont's colt.

Harry Payne Whitney won two races, with Battleaxe and Comet, both sired by Hamburg. Rattleaxe was an odds-on favorite in the first race, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs. With Hildebrand up, he showed his heels to the others and won handily by two lengths from J. L. Holland's Masterson, a 50 to 1 shot. Jerry Wernberg, lowered to 12 to 1, was apparently out of it in the run up the backstretch, but he made up a lot of ground in the run home, and would have been third in another stride Snow, another good thing, was a factor up to the last querter, where he blew up.

Comet, carrying the Whitney colors, also worn by Hildebrand, got out of the maiden class in the sixth race, at six furlongs. He was backed down to 7 to 2, an equal second makes and complete the hind race and skirmish makes in the sixth race, at six furlongs. There was a heavy plunge on Mr. Paget's Bass, who was hamafter which he was never prominent H. B. Duryea's Pioneer, also by Hamburg, a 6 to 1 good thing, had a big lead at one period of the race, but he weakened in the last furlong, and Comet, who had been in hand all the ay, experienced no trouble in beating him length and a half in 1:151-5. Pioneer finished two lengths before J. Grant Lysman's Grand Duchess, 6 to 1, with Bella Signora a length and a half back. Grand Signora a length and a half back. Grand Duchess closed a big gap at the end.

Tangle, a full sister to the famous Tanya, was victorious in the third event, for maiden two-year-old fillies, five and a half furlengs. She ran in the name and colors of F. R. Hitchcock and was lowered two points to 8 to 1. Mr. Whitney's coupled entry, Perverse and Commune, both by Meddier, ruled the choice at 6 to 5, with August Belmont's Bivouac, T. D. Sullivan's Caprice and E. R. Thomas's Yalagal all in favor. Hester W., 20 to 1, had early speed, with Commune also at the head of the procession, but they stopped at the of the procession, but they stopped at the half mile, where Shaw had assumed the leadership with Tangle, who won in a gallop by two lengths in 1:08 1-5. Perverse, who got off last, ran a fine race and took the place from Rivouse by three lengths.

got off last, ran a fine race and took the place from Bivouac by three lengths.

The chances of The Mighty, 9 to 5 favorite in the second race, at a mile, were materially hurt by the start. Yet he managed to get third money. Willie Knapp meanwhile brought Greencrest, heavily backed at 16 to 5, home an easy winner by a length and a half. Though poorly ridden, Kansas Price's Uncle Urigh, 15 to 1, landed the place. Henry Bert, backed down to 7 to 2, had a world of speed for seven furlongs, but was short. The mile was run in 1:421-5. W. Knapp and Hildebrand each rode two winfers. The weather was cloudy and the track slow. The summaries:

RIFLE TOURNEY ENDS. Capt, Corwin, Seventy-first Regiment, Wins New York State Champtonship.

CREEDMOOB, Aug. 1.—Capt. G. W. Corwin of the Seventy-first Regiment won the championship of the New York State Rifle Association in the individual match of the association ciation to-day and, incidentally, added another to the brilliant list of victories scored by the Seventy-first in the meeting which closed this afternoon. The New York State Rifle Association match comprises three long range distances, 800, 900 and 1,000 yards, with seven shots at each distance, the twenty seven shots at each distance, the twenty highest competitors then settling the match by a skirmish run. Lieut. K. K. V. Casey, the Seventy-first's long distance crack, led at the end of the three long ranges with a total of 90, with Corwin second at 82 and Lieuts. Ranney and Jenkins, both of the Seventy-first, tied at 79. Corwin's run was 80, with 16 shots on the prone figure, Casey dropping back to third place with a run of 64 and Sergt. Short of the Seventh moving up to second with a run of 82.

TAX BETTING COMMISSIONERS.

CLUBROUSE AGENTS AT SARA-TOGA CHARGED $12 A DAY.

Bookmakers William to Pay 600 for Ad vance Information Providing Old Admission of $2 is Charged—Plungers Requested to Keep Their Wagers Down.

SARATOGA, Aug. 1 .- It is the intention of the managers of the Saratoga Racing Associa-tion to make this meeting pay, no matter who has to furnish the freight money. Yesterday the order went forth that the book-makers would have to pay $12 a day for advance information pertaining to the races, and to-day the clubhouse betting commis-sioners were notified that those who wished sioners were notified that those who wished to work would have to pay a similar sum for the privilege.

This taxing of the elubhouse commissioners is a new move. Not so long ago the messangers were permitted to take bets for the clubhouse members simply by purchasing an admission badge to the track. At the Sheepshead Bay meeting the price jumped to 27 a day Now it is $12. If this sort of thing continues there will not be enough betting agents to handle the bets of the club members. The meeting has opened well, financially, and the small revenue derived from the commissioners will not be a drop in the financial bucket at the end of the season. There is scarcely more than twenty-five members in daily attendance at the clubhouse here, and the messengers have a hard time to find enough bets to pay even half the sum that they are taxed. It is the opinion here among bookmakers that next season will find a radical change both in the way the betting ing is conducted and the price of admission to the racetracks.

One of the members of the governing committee of the Mets spoke on the subject as will charge $60 a day for the news of the races, such as the jockeys' names, the overweights, the withdrawals and the declarations to win, instead of the present rate of $12 per day. The association could just as easily get $60 as $12. The only wonder is that they did not do so in the beginning. The layers would readily pay the higher rate provided that the price of admission was reduced to 32. The old admission price would bring back the racing crowd in full force. With increased attendance the ring would been and the beckmakers would handle twice the amount of money that they do to-day. Any man who offers the odds would prefer to pay a high rate for racing information and be assured of good patronage than to pay a small sum and find business practically

"I understand that during the winter the proposition will be made to have the general price of admission to the recetrack $2. The grand stand and field stand would be thrown open into one and the rate would be the same for both places. In other words, there would be no field stand, but simply one enclosure." There is a feeling among the racing authorities that the turf would be better served if a high rate of admission is maintained; that the "sport of kings" is not for a poor man and those who have to work hard for a daily loving.

If the big plungers obey the mandates of the turf authorities here this meeting will pass off without any sensational bets being recorded. The officials of the track have requested the big speculators to refrain from betting heavily on the horses. They don't mind modest wagers of $1,000 or so on a race, but they frown at $25,000 and $30,000 bet on a single contest. Such wagers the management believe cause discussion and sensational stories in the newspapers and attract attention and notoriety which is harmful to the game. The majority of the Western turimea such as in the newspapers and attract attention and notoriety which is harmful to the game. The majority of the Western turfmea such as Jonn A. Drake and John W. Gates have promised that they will keep their bets down to small limits.

Everthing was quiet in the betting ring this afternoon and there is no trouble or threat of a strike on the part of the Mets. The success of four well backed favorites yesterday wrecked bank rolls of six of the original members to such an extent that they were ready to "take to the woods." Manager John Cavanagh found additional space for the bookmakers by rearranging the inner circle. He brought the line well toward the entrance, and this gave increased space.

After Greencreat had won the second race he was effered for sale at his entered price of $500. The horse on his running to-day showed that he was worth much more than that sum, for he slipped his field easy soon after the start, opened up a gap and won in hand. It is no wonder, therefore, that Billy Schaut, who trains for Joe Yeager, bid the horse was knocked down to his old owner.

J. Cochran, who rode Sonoma Belle, and Murphy, who rode Uncle Urigh, in the second race, came under the displeasure of the starter by recklessly disregarding his orders while at the post. They tried to break through the barrier, and after Mr. Cassidy had warned them several times he suspended them for six days.

Old England again showed his ugly disposition while at the post and delayed the starter of the second race ten or fifteen minutes by his antics. At the Brighton Beach meeting this horse became such a nuisance that the stewards ordered Starter Cassidy to limit him to five minutes and then jif necessary to leave him at the gost. Instead of enforcing this rule here the herse was placed on the schooling list. This will be a waste of time, as Old England has been on the schooling list times innumerable without good results.

There was a great tip out on Commune and Perverse, Harry Rayne Whitney's maiden two-year-olds, in the third race. Both horses her jockey. Noonan. The boy was not hurt and the mare was caught before she had time to ran away.

Visitors to the track this afternoon were greatly annoyed and inconvenienced by the action of the stewards, who ordered that the jockeys' names should not be displayed on the board until just before each race was called. The reason for the delay, it was learned, was due to the desire of the track management to make the bookmakers realize that they were receiving something like real advance information when they issued the jockeys' slips before each race and for which they charged $12. In their endeavor to impress the value of this service on the minds of the bookmakers the stewards lost sight of the fact that they were causing great annoyance to their patrons who had paid $3 to see the races and were entitled to all the adjuncts of the game, such as the jockeys' names, quite as much as the layers.

An amusing incident cropped up just before the horses were sent to the post for the first race. While Harry Payne Whitney was talking with his trainer, John W. Rogers, in regard to the chance of his colt Battle Axe, a young boy, dressed in a blue suit and wearing a black cap, approached them, Lifting an anxious face up to the 'men, he said:

"Are you trying?"

NEW YORK AMERICANS AGAIN BEAT CLEVELANDS.

Startling Catches of Fly Balls by Dougherty, Chase and Fitck-Locals Tied With Detroits for Fourth Place-Washingtons and Philadelphias Outplay Rivals.

By beating the Clevelands yesterday the New York Americans won their sixth straight victory. They are tied with the Detroits for fourth place, the Detroits being shut out by Washington. The Philadelphias won a ten inning game from the Chicagos, and rain prevented a game in Boston. The results: New York, S; Cleveland, S. Washington, 4: Detroit, 0

Electrifying fielding capers studied the demolition of the Clevelands by the New Yorks at American Leasue Park yesterday. Three sointillating catches of fly balls made the spectators gasp for breath, that involuntary action preceding outbursts of applause that the catches earned. Dougherty. Chass and Flick were the three perincipals in the twinkling trinity. The excellent pitching of Orth had a more substantial bearing on the game, he restricting the Cleveland his to few in number and spreading them out so thinly over the layer of nine imings that there was nothing approaching a bunching. In short, Orth was much steadier than Moore, the Cleveland pitcher hitting three batters and one of his globular assaults forcing a man across the plate.

The demolition of the Clevelands was anything but onesided, and there was no feeling of security until the last man was out. The New Yorks, because of better and more resourceful hitting, looked like winners all through, but the situation necessitated them being keyed up all the time.

Keeler curved a short fly safely into left field in the first inning. Elberfeld's fly was muffed by Kahl, but Keeler was caught at second on the play, not daring to take much of a lead off first on what ninety-nine times out of a hundred would have been an out. Elberfeld stole second, and scored on Dougherty's double between Flick and Vinson. Clean fielding would not have allowed the Clevelands to score in the second inning. Bradley doubled to left with one out, and went on to third on Dougherty's poor return to Elberfeld. Turner's fly to Fultz brough him home.

Good stops and better throws by Bradley and Turner nullified New York's scoring attempts in the second. Turner made several plays of this sort in the game. He can throw a man out at first base while tied up in a knot and moving in any direction. He is the most supple and indefatigable workman seen about here in many a day. In the third inning decided the game if the back, he reached up and outly the ball. The fifth inning decided the g

No Consolidation, Says Ban Johnson.

Ban Johnson, president of the American League, saw the game here yesterday, with him being President Taylor of the Boston Americans. While Byron Bancroft was munching peanuts he said there would not be any consolidation of the two major leagues. "There has not been any action to warrant the belief that there will be a merger into a twelve club league, and what's more, there will always be two eight club leagues. Basewill always be two eight club leagues. Baseball is better off with two big leagues. There's more rivalry in the air, and there are patrons enough to support two big leagues. So far this year the American League has played to over 200,000 more persons toan it did in the same length of time last season. I called on President Pulliam this morning, but that does not mean that there was any twelve club league being planned.

"If looks to me," continued the president, "as if the Western teams of the American League are going to have harder sledding in the race than they have had. That is becomes the Eastern teams are going better. New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Washington are all hitting up the pace, and the present trip East of the Western teams is a critical one.

President Taylor says his team has played

NATIONAL LEAGUE. Champtons Still Marching On-Another Victory Over the Cine

The New York Nationals keep marching on. They won their twelfth consecutive victory yesterday and scored their eleventh straight victory over the Cincinnatis. Of the two accomplishments the latter is much more unusual. Eight of the Cincinnati games were played in a row, three of them having been decided when the Champions were in Cincinnati on a previous trip. Rain kept the Pittsburgs and Brooklyns spart yesterday, and the New Yorks now lead the Pirates by over a hundred points. The Philadelphias defeated the Chicagos in an analysis of the Pirates of the Pir eleven inning game, and the Bostons dusted the field with the Cardinals. The results: New York, 10; Cincinnati, 5.

McClelland and Dina Box to a Draw. Jack McClelland of Pittsburg returned to the ring again on Monday night and met Jimmy Dunn of New Castle, Pa., in a fifteen round bout at Bridgeport, Ohio, before the Metropolitan A. C. The result was a draw. McClelland was not in the best of shape, nd this was evident as soon as he had sobe a few rounds. He was allow and slipphof. this was evident as soon as he had sobe a few rounds. He was slow and slipshod is his movements, and his punches lacked steam. Dunn went after McClelland when he realized that his rival could not punch. The pair fought viciously in the tenth round. It looked as if McClelland was done for in this round, but he pulled himself together.

In the tweffth McClelland displayed great cleverness. He got away from several vicious swings, which had they landed would have put him out. The remaining rounds were interesting and even, and the verdict seemed to be very fair. The pair met at 128 pounds.
